

Nunavik

Where

Northern Québec, Canada

Villages

14, no road to the south

Prices

CAD, air rates of 2023

Air rate Montréal–Kuujuaq, 2023

7.89 $/kg 13× the ship

0.60 $/kg Sealift, Jul to Oct

7.89 $/kg Air, all year

Subsidised food 2022–23

6.3 M kg 67 Egrets a week

1.5 M kg Kuujuaq

4.8 M kg Other 13 villages

Runway-length fit indicative

14/14 villages on gravel

2,000 ft Egret needs

3,519 ft Shortest strip

One full flight Montréal–Kuujuaq

14,300 $ for 1,814 kg

4 h 54 Still-air estimate

1,650 nmi Range assumed

Air Inuit's bases, from Montréal

14 villages, no road

— Air Inuit trunk, nmi from Montréal — Village legs, as modelled ● Nunavut

Air costs 13 to 67 times the ship

$/kg, air 2023, sea 2026

■ Air ■ Sea

Air over sea

Who carries, who pays

Air Inuit, about 13.5 M kg a year

6.3 M kg subsidised food, at most 7.2 M kg other cargo, at least

Nutrition North subsidy paid to retailers, whoever flies 4.13 $/kg

Makivik owns Air Inuit and part of NEAS, the sealift

Canadian North left Montréal–Kuujuaq to Air Inuit Aug 2025

Polynesia

Where

French Polynesia, Pacific

Islands

118, of which 76 inhabited

Prices

EUR, converted from XPF

Air share

island freight

0.5%

by weight

384,000 t

Sea to islands, 2025

2,000 t

Air, 2024

No airstrip

inhabited, at least

7

islands

7,444 people

11%

Of outer islanders

451

On Rapa

Runway-length fit

indicative

18/18

airports

paved

2,000 ft

Egret needs

2,477 ft

Ua Huka, shortest

Rapa by Heron

still-air estimate

4 h 12

671 nmi

2-3 months

Between ships

1,550 nmi

Range assumed

One hub, five archipelagos

rings every 250 nmi from Papeete

● Airport: Egret or Heron

○ No airstrip: Heron only

— Heron leg

Where the ships go

both ways in 2025; 384,000 t to the islands

Leeward Is.

179,770 t 40%

Windward Is.

131,404 t 29%

Tuamotu

68,999 t 15%

Marquesas

37,978 t 8%

Austral Is.

24,399 t 5%

Gambier

6,988 t 2%

Who carries, who pays

Air Tahiti's contracts end June 2027

Air Tahiti

12 ATRs, 153 M€ revenue; public aid, 2024

9.9 M€

Motu Link

freighter since May 2026, seven islands

8.5 t

The territory

pays sea freight on essentials, not air

Coastal ships

22 ships, two new in 2026; average age

26 years

The model

Case

Nunavik, direct from Montréal

Price

90% of the 2023 rate

Demand

25% share at the 2023 rate

Inputs Open the live model

Routing

Direct

Via hubs

Market

Price

90%

Village rate

+4 $/kg

Operations

Hourly cost

740 $/h

Flying hours

2,000

Return loads

10%

20-year NPV at 10%

+16.5

M$

IRR 13%

63.4 M$

Aircraft, today's value

+16.5 M$

Surplus

Payback

undiscounted

8 years

13 discounted

Year 3

First cash surplus

62.3 M$

Funding need

Fleet

Egret, one spare

17 aircraft

112 flights a week

3.6 of 12.7 M kg

Carried a year

94%

Of 2,000 hours

Cash by year

M$, cash positive from year 3

One kilo, in dollars

10.37 in, 9.52 out

Freight
Return loads Flying Aircraft Bases Handling Margin

Direct or via hubs

NPV over 20 years

Direct at 90%

+16.5 M$

Egrets

17

Flights a week

112

Bases

1

Via hubs at 90%

-17.3 M$

Egrets

18

Flights a week

174

Bases

3

Break-even

Case

Nunavik, direct from Montréal

Method

One input at a time

Incumbent

Air Inuit holds its rate

What has to hold

Price, at least

Tight

81% of the 2023 rate

base 90%

9 pts to spare

Hourly cost, at most

Tight

806 $/h

base 740 $/h

66 $/h to spare

Village rate, at least

Holds

+3.06 $/kg over 7.89

base +4 $/kg

0.94 $/kg to spare

Flying hours, at least

Holds

1,600 per aircraft a year

base 2,000

400 h to spare

Return loads, at least

Holds

3.6% of freight revenue

base 10%

6.4 pts to spare

NPV by price

M$ over 20 years, shaded where it pays

Price and fleet

Price	Share	Egrets	NPV, M$
70%	38%	22	-38.6
80%	33%	19	-3.4
NPV zero at 81%
90%	28%	17	+16.5
100%	25%	16	+37.2
110%	14%	10	+17.8

What moves the NPV

NPV in M$, one input at a time

Hiking in Tremblant

Enzo Simier

Applied economist, English and French

I spent ten years in Tahiti, then lived in Grenoble and Rennes. I have been a Montrealer since 2021 and a Canadian permanent resident since 2025. I studied pharmacy in Bordeaux for two years before turning to economics. I care about good food, cafés, and golden retrievers.

in LinkedInenzosimier.comenzo.simier@hec.caCV

Three models for Poseidon

Routes and fleet

Which legs, which aircraft, and how many flights a week.

Nunavik and Polynesia

Demand and price

How many kilos Poseidon wins as its price falls.

Price-response model

Route economics

Break-even price and 20-year NPV across a scenario grid.

96-scenario grid

Experience

Open to pricing, network and growth roles in aviation

Studies

B.B.A. Economics and Finance HEC MontréalM.Sc. Applied Economics HEC Montréal

Work

National Bank
business development
KPMG Canada
economic consulting Competition Bureau regulated industries

Research

Réseau Environnement

Water pricing thesis

2020

2021

2022

2023

2024

2025

2026

Today